

Tribute to Paul Burrows, longtime U employee

We'd like to invite you to join us in honoring Paul Burrows, who will retire on June 30 after serving the University of Utah for 40 years. Paul currently works as an information architect in Teaching & Learning Technologies, although his U career also includes video and telecourse production, instructional design, interactive media development, metadata schemas, online orientations and tutorials, and business process analysis.

To submit a tribute, please complete this survey by Wednesday, June 10, 2020. You may take this survey multiple times.

If you'd like to submit a photo or other media, please email stratcomm@it.utah.edu.

All responses will be shared with Paul. Select responses will be lightly edited and published in a future edition of Node 4, UIT's public newsletter.

Please feel free to forward this invitation to any colleagues who may be interested in sharing stories about, memories of, or well wishes for Paul.

Note: This announcement is being cross-posted to several email lists at the U. We apologize for any duplicate messages you may receive.
